88 Pizza

Visit 88 Pizza in spring or summer. This is when you can experience the real atmosphere of the place. Eat outside in front of the renovated old-fashioned building, sitting on deckchairs and soaking up the sun. There is something for everyone on the menu. There is Italian pizza, delicious soups, main courses such as cod fillet in wine and butter sauce, tagliatelle in wine sauce with duck and nuts or Thai prawn soup with coconut milk.

Klitka u Witka

If you want a taste of our local history and aren't necessarily a fan of thin crust, Klitka u Witka is the place to go. It is the first pizzeria in our town, founded in 1983. Its rectangular, thick pizza with tomato sauce, grated cheese (who heard of mozzarella fior di late in the mid-80s?) and mushrooms brings back memories. You can order just one slice or take a whole tray of 9 slices to share with your friends. Today the menu also includes Italian-style pizzas, toasted sandwiches and salads.

Lumberjack Burgers

One of the places I would recommend you visit during your stay in Nowy Sącz is Lumberjacks Burgers. What started as a simple food truck has turned into a restaurant<sup>1</sup> with great potential for expansion. At first glance it looks like a typical fast food joint, but the taste of the meat goes far beyond that. You can choose from a menu or 'craft your own Jack' and create your own favourite burger.

Mr' Jerry Restaurant and Steak House

One of the tastiest places on the culinary<sup>1</sup> map of Nowy Sącz, with an interior reminiscent of popular American steakhouses. The menu is also inspired by American and Italian cuisine<sup>2</sup>. You will be impressed by the range of cold seasoned steaks and burgers made from Hereford beef, pasta or white and red wines. The owners say that even if you don't fancy this type of cuisine, you should try it at Mr' Jerry!

Ratuszowa Restaurant

The heart of Nowy Sącz is the Town Hall. An eclectic building built between 1895 and 1897, it houses local authorities and officials. Between council meetings, it is here that couples take their marriage vows of fidelity and honesty. In the basement of the building is the Ratuszowa Restaurant - one of the few places from the previous era that has survived and is still in operation. If you are in Nowy Sącz on a business trip or sightseeing, it is worth stopping at Ratuszowa and ordering the famous pierogi.

Sushi Zon

Lovers of Japanese cuisine<sup>1</sup> will also find something to their liking. One place in particular stands out - Sushi Zon, near the Jagiellońska paved promenade. It is run by a certified sushi master, a member of the World Sushi Skills Institute. The menu also includes ramen soup, salmon tartare, mochi ice cream and Japanese wine.

The Old "Coctail" Bar

The history of this misspelled place dates back to 1964. The original taste of desserts, ice creams and iced coffees is probably known to every resident of Nowy Sącz. Today it has a new owner, but the recipes and interior design have remained unchanged. An obligatory stop on any visit to Nowy Sącz.

Sądecka Winery

In one of the cellars in the town square , a group of friends and wine lovers decided to open a place where they could share their passion with others. There is a wide selection of wines and whiskies to choose from. The owners decided to complement the drinks menu with a range of dishes. You can also take part in some interesting events, such as tasting<sup>1</sup> and live concerts.
